

Meeting the Invisible Woman: A 6th Grader Learns What Seeing Can Really Mean

This is a true story that captures a series of events which occurred at a private Christian school...as told through the eyes of several 6th graders. It is short, simple, and has a message that is not just for elementary school kids. It illustrates how unintentionally myopic people can be. It sheds a light on the invisible people around us, people that are most often taken for granted. It brings awareness to a yearning that every one of us has, that is...to be seen. This story demonstrates just how healing to ones heart that sight can be.
