

Clean Straw for Nothing & A Cartload of Clay (Angus & Robertson Classics)

These two classic tales of identity and exile by award winning author George Johnston focus on David, a successful war correspondent, as he attempts to find his place in the world. George Johnston, born 1912, launched his journalistic career at the age of 16. He became Australia's first official war correspondent in WWII and wrote for Time magazine. He spent a number of years in Greece.
