

Boys and Girls Playing

Boys and Girls Playing describes Gods concern for children in winsome terms easy for a child to understand. Drawing from the fact that in the restored Jerusalem the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing (Zec 8:5), Ryle assures little ones that God thinks about boys and girls and He allows them to play. Then he urges them in their playing to remember the eye and ear of God, keep their tempers, not neglect work because of play, and to remember that true happiness comes not from the innocent joys of play but from Christ alone.
