GENT MAGAZINE COLLECTORS GUIDE, VOL. 1 Every Cover Of GENT Magazine Published 1956-1986 GENT Magazine was a mens magazine published by the Magna Publishing Group, publisher of Swank, Genesis, Velvet and many other popular adult magazines. It focused on women with large breasts, and in 1978 subtitled itself Home of the D-Cups. Begun in 1956 by Excellent Publications, Inc. as The Gent, it was one of a number of skin magazine startups at the time aimed at male readers in imitation of Playboy and hoping for similar success. It continued to be a market for popular fiction through the 1970s, 80s (then put out by Dugent Publishing Corp.) and 90s, publishing pieces such as Strawberry Spring by Stephen King but by the 2000s it tended to focus almost exclusively on large breasted women. Gent ceased publication in 2011.
