

Originally serialized in the New York Times Magazine, Lippmans Tess Monaghan novella turns the intrepid Baltimore PIs at-risk late-pregnancy bed rest into a compellingly edgy riff on Hitchcocks Rear Window. Lovingly tucked up on her winterized sun porch, Tess marshals her forces--doting artist boyfriend Crow, best friend Whitney Talbot, middle-aged assistant gumshoe Mrs. Blossom, and researcher Dorie Starnes--to probe the disappearance of a chic blonde green-raincoated dog walker shed been watching from her comfy prison. Tess also takes in the missing womans abandoned green-slickered Italian greyhound from hell, a miniature canine terrorist whose anti-housebreaking vendetta offers comic relief from Tesss threatened pre-eclampsia, her obsessive unraveling of a complex scam, and her last-trimester spats with Crow about their future. Though postpartum Tess turns alternately weepy and shrill, that condition wont last, and this entertaining romp leaves plenty of hints of detective-mother exploits to come. (Jan.)
